THE SIMPLE SB7 FRAMEWORK

CLARIFY YOUR MESSAGE SO CUSTOMERS LISTEN

- Go to StoryBrand.AI and either create a StoryBrand BrandScript or log in to your existing BrandScript.
- Either alone or with a team, brainstorm what potential desires your customers might have that you can fulfill.
- Make a decision. Choose something your customer wants and fill in the “character” module of your StoryBrand BrandScript.
- Read the next chapter and repeat this process for the next section of your BrandScript.

A Character

What do they want?

Once you fill out the first module of your StoryBrand BrandScript, you'll be on your way to inviting customers into an incredible story. At this point, they're interested in you and what you offer. But what can we do to entice them even further into a story? Let's move on to the next StoryBrand element and find out!

HAS A PROBLEM

CLARIFY YOUR MESSAGE SO CUSTOMERS LISTEN

- Go to StoryBrand.AI and either create a BrandScript or log in to your existing BrandScript.
- Either alone or with your team, brainstorm all of the literal and metaphorical villains your brand takes a stand against.
- Brainstorm the external problems your brand resolves. Is there one that seems to represent the widest swath of products?
- Brainstorm the internal problem (frustration or doubt) your customers are feeling as it relates to your brand. Is there one that stands out as a universal experience for your customers?
- Is your brand part of a larger, more important story? Is there a philosophical wrong your brand stands against?
- Once you finish your brainstorming session, make the four StoryBrand BrandScript decisions that will allow you to create sound bites for the second element of your StoryBrand BrandScript.

AND MEETS A GUIDE

CLARIFY YOUR MESSAGE SO CUSTOMERS LISTEN

- Go to StoryBrand.AI and either create a BrandScript or log in to your existing BrandScript.
- Either alone or with a team, brainstorm empathetic statements you can make so your customers know you care about their internal problem.
- Brainstorm the many ways you can demonstrate competency by exploring potential testimonials, statistics that demonstrate competence, awards you've won, press mentions, or logos from other businesses you've helped.
- Once you finish your brainstorming session, make the two StoryBrand BrandScript decisions that will allow you to fill out section 3.

WHO GIVES THEM A PLAN

CLARIFY YOUR MESSAGE SO CUSTOMERS LISTEN

- Go to StoryBrand.AI and either create a BrandScript or log in to your existing BrandScript.
- Either alone or with a team, brainstorm the simple steps a customer would need to take to do business with you (either a pre- or post-purchase process plan or a combination of both).
- What fears do your customers have related to your industry? What agreements could you make with your customers that would alleviate those fears?
- Do you share unique values with your customers? Can those values be spelled out in an agreement plan?
- Write the steps (and name) of your process plan on your StoryBrand BrandScript. If you're creating an agreement plan, simply use the notes section of your BrandScript to capture the agreement you'll be making with your customers.

AND CALLS THEM TO ACTION

CLARIFY YOUR MESSAGE SO YOUR CUSTOMERS LISTEN

- Go to StoryBrand.AI and either create a BrandScript or log in to your existing BrandScript.
- Decide what direct call to action you want to include in your marketing material.
- Brainstorm any transitional calls to action you can create that will stake a claim to your territory, create reciprocity with your customers, further build a relationship, and position your brand as a guide.
- Fill out the “Call to Action” section of your StoryBrand BrandScript.

- Brainstorm the successful resolution you're helping your customers achieve. What will their lives look like if they use your products and services?
- Use the bullet points in the success module of your BrandScript to capture your best answers.

PEOPLE WANT YOUR BRAND TO PARTICIPATE IN THEIR TRANSFORMATION

CLARIFY YOUR MESSAGE SO CUSTOMERS LISTEN

- Go to StoryBrand.AI and either create a BrandScript or log in to your existing BrandScript.
- Brainstorm the aspirational identity of your customer. Who do they want to become? How do they want to be perceived by others?
- Use the “to” lines of your BrandScript to define an aspirational identity. Filling out the “from” line is then simple. It’s simply the opposite of whatever you define as their aspirational identity captured in the “to” line.

DEFINE YOUR CONTROLLING IDEA

CLARIFY YOUR MESSAGE SO CUSTOMERS LISTEN

- Go to StoryBrand.AI and either create a BrandScript or log in to your existing BrandScript.

- Use the “controlling idea” line of your BrandScript to capture your new and important sound bite.
